Facilitation

Each of these virtual team options are led by our Adventure Associates' facilitator who provides a high energy introduction, keeps the teams on track and manages the remote set-up. We will work with you to include reflection/debrief opportunities that fit your meeting goals.

Team Development Connection

Many of our clients find that combining solid training with fun virtual activities provides increased learning and value for their teams. Consider integrating Communication Skills, Conflict Styles, Collaborative Problem-Solving or a personality instrument (e.g., MBTI, DISC or Emotional Intelligence).
